

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

WILLIAM FINN III and CINDY FINN,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOHN S. PETERSON, attorney at law,
MICHAEL D. BOHANNON, attorney at law, separately/jointly responsible,

Defendants.

Case No. MS06-5015FDB

ORDER DENYING IFP AND DISMISSING CAUSE OF ACTION

Plaintiff applies to proceed in forma pauperis in this cause of action, "Criminal Complaint and Notice of Felony and Request for Presentment of Facts in Front of A Federal Grand Jury For Indictment as Per 18 USC, Part.1, Chapter 1, Par. 4 Under Misprision of Felony." Plaintiffs have assets sufficient to render it reasonable to require them to pay the filing fee in this matter.

Plaintiffs' case has been docketed as a miscellaneous matter, but it does not appear appropriate for this matter to proceed as such, if at all. Plaintiffs appear to complain about not being allowed by the Bankruptcy Court to withdraw from voluntary bankruptcy and they also assert that the attorney defendants are illegally attempting to interfere with the Dutchess Trust as an alter ego of

1 William Finn III and Cindy Finn. An individual may not independently file criminal charges, and
2 Plaintiffs' concerns are matters that are more appropriately brought before the Bankruptcy Court.

3 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

- 4 1. Plaintiffs' Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis is DENIED;
- 5 2. Plaintiffs' cause of action is DISMISSED.

6 DATED this 17th day of July, 2006.
